

City of Columbia
Human Rights Enhancement Program
FY2014 Funding Information

Organization	Program	Funding Requested	Funding Allocated	Program Dates	Service Description	Contact	Contact E-mail
Missouri Immigrant & Refugees Advocates	"New Kid" Play	$500.00	$500.00	November 22 & 23, 2013	A play where the protagonists and his mother do not speak the language or know the customs of his new country. The play is intended to increase mutual respect and understanding and create a more welcoming community.	Joan Suarez	suarez.joan@att.net
Amnesty International (Hickman High School)	Venerable Champa Lhunpo	$500.00	$500.00	November 14, 2013	Tibetan Monk Champa Lhunpo, professor at another university, traveled to Columbia to give a presentation on the Human Rights Crisis in Tibet and the dangers of ignoring human rights issues	George Frissell	gfrissel@columbia.k12.mo.us
Ragtag Cinema	"The Dream is Now" Screening & Panel Discussion	$500.00	$500.00	December 5, 2013	A documentary of the challenges faced by young undocumented immigrants and current immigration policies, followed by a panel discussion of issues related to current immigration policies. The program is intended to increase awareness of barriers faced by immigrants in our community and around the nation.	Tracy Lane	tracy@ragtagcinema.org
Missouri Immigrant & Refugees Advocates	"The Missouri Immigrant Experience: Faces & Places"	$500.00	$500.00	April 5, 2014 thru April 26, 2014	A photo exhibit that will be on display for 3 weeks in the Columbia Public Library. In the exhibit, the curator juxtaposes historical photos of Missouri immigrants and communities with modern day photos of the same. The exhibit is intended to increase mutual respect and understanding, to challenge common myths and provide a cross cultural art experience to our residents.	Joan Suarez	suarez.joan@att.net

Total Allocations to Date: $2,000.00
Funding Available: $3,000.00
Balance: $1,000.00